Declaration

During the year of the claim:

Yes No

1. Were you (or your spouse) the holder of an asset that could yield an income? (for example, an owner of a rental property or a holder of shares)
2. Were you (or your spouse) in receipt of fees or commissions which were not subject to PAYE deductions?
3. Were you (or your spouse) involved in a trade, including a trade which is currently operating at a loss as a result of capital allowance entitlements or where profits are covered by use of losses brought forward from prior years?
4. Were you (or your spouse) in receipt of an exempt source of income, such as income from occupation of certain woodlands, profits from stallion fees, stud greyhound services fees, farmland leasing, patent royalty income or earnings of certain writers, artists and composers?

Where you (or your spouse) have answered "Yes" to any of the above questions you should submit this form along with your Return of Income form (Form 11 or Form 12) for the year of the claim to your local Revenue office.

Claimants should note that all Social Welfare payments and income subjected to DIRT are exempt from the income levy.

Penalties apply for making a false claim.

I declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the particulars given by me on this form are correctly stated.
